

MARQUETTE UNIVERSITY GRADUATE SCHOOL GRADUATE STANDING CONTINUATION FORM

Students who are not able to take academic courses in a particular term, who do not meet the conditions for a Leave of Absence and who need to maintain active status as a student, may register for a zero-credit Graduate Standing Continuation course. Course number 873 will be used. This course will allow students to engage in such activities as preparing for comprehensive examinations. This course will designate a student as less than half-time only. It may not be used in conjunction with other courses, and it will not qualify a student for loans or loan deferment. After receiving the permission number, the student must register via CheckMarq for the course requested below.
